

MAGADH MAHILA COLLEGE, N.C.C. UNIT

NCC REPORT

2012-2018

National Cadet Corps as the foremost organization of our youth has been performing a unique service to the nation by inculcating the spirit of national integration and unity in our youth and molding them into responsible and disciplined citizen.

N.C.C Unit in Magadh Mahila College was established from the foundation of the College. It is the unit of Ist Bihar Girls Battalion, N.C.C. Patna, Which comes under Bihar and Jharkhand Directorate. The cadets of thiscollege are very active at the college and state level. Weekly parade and classes are being organized for 2 hours every Tuesday. The Cadets have taken part in ATC,TSC,NIC,RD Parade,YEP and won accolades for their performance.Every year, the cadets have been able to get Cadet Welfare Society Scholarship and also they appearing for B & C certificate examinations and majority of them received good grade in the examinations.The unit organizes SSB training for cadets; some cadets have made it to defense services as officers.NCC unit of Magadh Mahila College has been playing a stellar role in inspiring and nurturing our girl's cadet with vital traits of character building, discipline, leadership and camaraderie. It gives special emphasis on military training, adventure activities and social awareness programme. It instills in them, secular ideals and patriotism-which is essential for nation building. It provides an ideal platform for holistic development of girls' cadet.

Apart from camp training, cadets also participate in social service activities such as, Swakshata Abhian, Awareness programme, Tree plantation etc.

N.C.C.unit in Magadh Mahila College has been run by Associate NCC Officer Captain Dr. Pushpalata Kumari. She is also Associate Professor in Department of Political Science.
